Office Memorandum

Subject: Codification of DBT schemes- regarding.

This is with reference to the codification of DBT schemes. Allocation of unique codes to DBT Schemes was under consideration for quite some time and after due consultations with all stakeholders, it has been decided to assign a unique and randomly generated 5-digit alpha-numeric code to all DBT Schemes for identification of DBT transactions in the fund flow process.

2. In the proposed scheme code structure for DBT Schemes, the first character will be assigned values between A to Z whereas the balance four characters will have values between 0 – 9 or A to Z. This unique code would be used for fund transfers taking place under the DBT schemes. It may so happen that only a component of a scheme is DBT compliant; in such cases, unique DBT scheme code will be allocated to that component only for tracking of DBT transactions.

3. DBT Mission has put in place a utility that will generate the unique scheme codes for all DBT schemes, which is to be used uniformly by all the Ministries/ user departments and other stakeholders i.e. PFMS, sponsor banks, NPCI, etc., throughout the entire fund flow process. For the 74 schemes that are presently reported on DBT, unique codes have been generated through this utility by the DBT Mission and is enclosed (at Annexure I). As and when Ministries bring their Schemes on DBT, they are required to generate unique scheme codes through the utility available on the DBT portal- www.dbtbharat.gov.in and use these unique codes for fund transfers under the DBT Schemes. All Ministries/Departments will be given username and password for this purpose.

4. Pursuant to the generation of codes for DBT schemes, the following action is required to be taken by the various stakeholders:

(a) Line Ministries:

Line Ministries are required to ensure that the 5-digit DBT scheme code is appended at the time of pre-validation of beneficiary details and creation of payment files sent through PFMS.

(b) PFMS:

PFMS is required to ensure that the scheme code is verified at the time of pre validation checks from the mapping table and also appended in every transaction when the payment files are received from the line Ministry to be sent to sponsor banks and NPCI.

(c) NPCI:

NPCI is required to share the mapping table (of DBT scheme codes and PFMS codes, as prepared by DBT Mission) with IBA and all the banks, and also ensure that during the complete transaction cycle, the unique scheme code is used, including at the time of sending the response files back to PFMS.

An illustrative example showing the complete transaction cycle is enclosed (at Annexure II).

5. In view of the above, all Ministries as well as the other stakeholders including PFMS, NPCI, banks, are requested to ensure that necessary modification for appending DBT Scheme codes in their software application may be carried out at the earliest so that the unique DBT Scheme codes are necessarily used for all DBT transactions w.e.f. 1st October, 2016.
